

Saint Paul Public Library Collectors' Corner Volunteer

Summary:

The Collectors' Corner at the Rice Street Library is a trading place for traders of all school ages. Youth bring in objects they have found in nature and trade for other objects. Traders talk to volunteers about their objects and receive points for their objects and knowledge. Help the next generation understand and appreciate the natural world around them.

Duties:

Collectors' Corner:

- Talk with children (traders) about the natural objects they have found
- Award points to traders for their objects and knowledge
- Facilitate traders in exchanging the objects they found for other objects in the collection

Qualifications:

- Ability to motivate and effectively communicate with children
- Must pass background check
- Must be at least 16 years old

Commitment:

The Rice Street Library Collectors' Corner is open
Wednesdays 3:30-7 p.m. and Saturdays from 11:30-2:30 p.m.

This opportunity is offered through the Science Museum of Minnesota. Please apply online at www.smm.org/volunteer and then contact their volunteer department at 651-221-9453 or volunteer@smm.org to schedule an interview.

Training/Supervision:

The Science Museum of Minnesota will schedule an orientation and training based on your availability upon your acceptance.

On site supervision provided by the Rice Street Library staff.

Wendy Neurer, Library Volunteer Coordinator, is available to answer questions and discuss any concerns at 651.266.7420 or wendy.neurer@ci.stpaul.mn.us