

Thank You, Omu Discussion Questions

1. Why is sharing important? Have you ever had to share something that you didn't want to?
2. When Omu discovered that all the stew was gone and there was nothing for her supper, how do you think she felt?
3. What kind of person do you think that Omu is? Why do you think that Omu gave away all her stew?
4. What makes a good neighbor? What are the qualities that someone should have as a neighbor?
5. In the story, the neighbors come back to Omu's apartment to show their gratitude or say thank you. How do you express gratitude to your friends, family, or neighbors? What are some ways you can say thank you to them in the future?
6. Oge Mora tells the reader that Omu in the Igbo language means queen; why do you think the author chose that name for her main character?
7. What kind of meal would you like to share with your neighbor?
